

Stefanie Sanev (aka Stefanie August)
Curriculum Vitae

I commenced my professional career in an administrative and managerial capacity while studying for her Bachelor's degree in Music at the University of Bridgeport, CT. (1980-83) Working as an assistant to the professorial staff, I also managed the university civic orchestra and was a seasonal assistant to the Executive Director of the Bridgeport Symphony.

After graduation, I worked with the National Booking Director of Columbia Artist Management, Inc. Realizing that I had a gift for being an agent and manager to performing artists, I left C.A.M.I. to work independently, producing shows and musical events in small theaters and venues in New York and the region.

In 1989 I relocated to Miami, FL, to create the Miami Beach Music Studio, a rehearsal, and production facility. My work in artist development included independent artists and entertainment production companies in music (Columbia Artists Records), modeling (Act 1 Management), and television (Wil Vander Flugt Film Productions).

My work expanded to the west coast in 2007, when I relocated to San Francisco and started B&B Talent. Development projects included: a national music tour to benefit Project Homeless Connect and 2b Records. I was also a co-director of the Aversano Galleria, a gallery of contemporary fine art, and was instrumental in developing the North Beach (NOBE) contemporary Artists Collective for showcasing to the museum trade.

From 2012-2017, I co-operated TigerKat Publishing, Inc., based in Oregon, producing four CD's and five books under the TigerKat imprint Please visit www.tigerkatpublishing.com for additional information.

I was also a member of the A.H. Factor Band, touring regional fairs and festivals as well as performing in local venues. Please visit www.ahfactorband.com for clips. Work included performing for Oregon's House of Representatives, meeting Governor Kate Brown and creating a new song for consideration of a new state song entitled "Oregon Rain".

In 2015 I won a "First Citizen's" Award from Silverton COC for work done with the Silverton Arts Festival.

Now residing in Depoe Bay, Oregon, I continue to offer my services to clients in arts, entertainment, academia, and publishing via my company www.stefanieaugustcreative.com
